Dear Dr Yakovlev

Conclusion of the 2012-13 Institutions Annual Monitoring exercise

Following your institution's Institution Annual Monitoring (IAM) submission for the 2012-13 academic year, the University of London has conducted a number of meetings, including with a senior executive group, to review and analyse IAM responses for all recognised centres.

Please find attached an analysis of your institution's data compared to University of London International Programmes averages, for all programmes combined, for students registered with teaching institutions.

The senior executive group was very pleased to note that student numbers have increased at ICEF and the excellent examination performance of students, that, in 2013 exceeded the University of London International Programmes' global average for the 2012-13 academic year. I am, therefore, writing to commend you on your institution's performance. Please pass on my congratulations to all the staff at ICEF.

This commendation will be noted at the next meeting of the Institutions Sub-Committee of the University of London International Academy Academic Committee on 14 May 2014.

I look forward to a continued successful working relationship with your institution.

Yours sincerely

Dr Stephanie Wilson
Director, Corporate Performance and Quality, University of London International Programmes
